

MISSION STATEMENT OF AVERY POINT CAMPUS

As the University of Connecticut's Campus by the Sea, Avery Point will continue to strive to become the top combined marine and maritime undergraduate/graduate research and teaching program in the country. Through its strong academic programs the campus will continue to educate undergraduate and graduate students who will provide the region, the nation, and the international partners with a talented marine and maritime workforce.