

MISSION STATEMENT OF CENTER FOR CONTINUING STUDIES

The University of Connecticut's Center for Continuing Studies (CCS) extends the intellectual capital and academic resources of New England's top-ranked public university throughout the state and beyond. In collaboration with the University community, the Center designs, plans, and manages credit and non-credit educational and outreach programs appropriate to the University's land grant mission of fostering engaged scholarship.